“Based on YTD figures for 2011, versus previous years, Jetcraft is having one of its busiest years ever. Furthermore, adding completed deals to our pending transactions, we fully expect the value of sales for the first half of 2011 to exceed $500 million,” says Chad Anderson, President, Jetcraft Corporation. “Our strong performance further illustrates that buyers and sellers have returned to a level of confidence in the business jet market that we have not seen since 2007. Building on a recovery in international markets, we are also starting to see upturns in the US, Europe and South America, particularly for new aircraft of all sizes. Jetcraft's success stems not only from a broad-based market recovery, but also from our professional approach, global presence and superior market knowledge. On behalf of the Jetcraft management team, I would like to thank our clients, employees and new international offices in Dubai and Moscow for making this success possible as Jetcraft proudly approaches its 50th year of continuous operations,” concludes Mr. Anderson.
